

BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH.

LUME 6, NO. 84.

BRAINERD, MINN., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1906.

PRICE TWO CENTS

WAR ON THE REBELS

PRESIDENT PALMA REVOKES DE-REE GRANTING AMNESTY TO REVOLUTIONISTS.

ION ANGERS VETERANS

MINENT OLD SOLDIERS DE-IDE TO JOIN THE INSUR-GENTS IN THE FIELD.

Havana, Sept. 11.—President Palma nday night issued a decree sus-ding all constitutional guarantees, h special reference to Articles 15, 17, 19, 22, 23, 24 and 27, in the vinces of Pinar del Rio, Havana Santa Clara. The law enforcing blic order, which is equivalent to rtial law, also is put into immeeffect in the three provinces med.

A supplemental decree has been isd suspending the decree of Aug.
pardoning repentant rebels, and or-ring that all rebels be arrested and led.

Both decrees have been communi-ed to all officers in the field.

Coincident with the issuance of the crees, which followed Monday ght's decision not to yield to the ace demands, the government orered the arrest of practically every minent Liberal. Alfredo Zayas, esident of the Liberal party, and veral others have disappeared.

Among other Liberals arrested are ngressmen Florencio Villuendas, orger and Varona.

When the news of the issuance of ese decrees reached the veterans' pace commission, which was in sesion at the home of General Menocal, ere was immediate and almost unanous denunciation of President Pala and other members of the government.

Senor Sangulilly, Independent, who as present, and who usually is oderate in his utterances, made an mpassioned speech in which he de-ared that there remained for Ca-ans but two roads to travel, one of onor and the other of disgrace. The overnment, he said, had refused of-ers of endeavors to settle the dif-ulty peacefully, and so nothing was eft but to side with its opponents.

General Collazo and other prominent eterans made similar speeches and General Menocal coincided with the views of the other speakers. It ap-ears probable that most of the members of the veterans' peace commis-ion will join the insurgents.

The government does not intend that membership in congress shall shield anybody from arrest.

PROSPECT OF PEACE.
Looked Decidedly More Hopeful for a Short Time.

Havana, Sept. 11.—For a while Monday evening the prospect of peace looked decidedly more hopeful. This condition was the result of the arrival here of one of the peace commissions which had visited the insurgent leader, Pinar del Rio, in Pinar del Rio province, with the news that Guerra had informally consented to a suspension of hostilities pending negotiations.

The clouds which appeared to be breaking with the announcement of this news gathered again within an hour when it became known that at a special meeting of the cabinet Monday evening, which was attended by President Palma, Vice President Capote and all the members of the ministry, it had been decided to declare all peace projects off. It was agreed at this meeting that the government could not consider the propositions of the Liberals, the main features of which are that President Palma shall resign and that the vice president and members of the cabinet shall do likewise or that a new general election shall be held. Immediately after the close of the cabinet meeting Vice President Mendez Capote declared that the government never would consent to such terms but that it would fight to the end.

Guerra, according to the peace commissioners, had expressed a willingness to suspend fighting pending peace negotiations provided the main basis of those negotiations was the original proposition for the resignation of President Palma and other high officers or the calling of new elections.
This commission, which was composed of Guerra's two brothers and Policarpe Fajardo, obtained Guerra's rather indefinite consent last week at San Juan de Martinez, but were unable to reach Havana earlier on account of suspension of the traffic on the western part of the railroad. A highly influential committee of veterans is now on the way to Guerra's camp with the expectation of accomplishing a definite suspension of hostilities.

Commissioners Were Hopeful.

Prior to Monday night's action of the government, which is given out as absolutely irrevocable, General Menocal and Alfredo Zayas reached a definite understanding as to what the Liberals would demand, and the peace commissioners were saying that while it was a difficult matter they had hopes of getting together. Neither General Menocal nor Senor Zayas would give the basis of their reasons for the hope of reaching an understanding, but it is known that the Liberals have not relinquished their purposes of having new elections, or at least the resignation of President Palma in favor of General Menocal.
Senator Sangulilly or some other independent.

A second rapid fire train has arrived at the partly destroyed bridge over the Santa Clara river beyond Herradura and will remain there as a guard while the bridge is being repaired. The forces of Colonels Avalos and Diaz, the latter being troops sent by the first armored train, continued on their way to Pinar del Rio.

No fighting was reported Monday and it is not considered likely that Pinar del Rio will be occupied by Guerra now that machine guns are proceeding in that direction.

Havana and Santa Clara provinces are quiet, but Santiago is reported uneasy.

A dispatch from Manzanillo reports that two editors, four city officials and several other Liberals have left the town to organize a rebel band.

Cienfuegos reports a total of 9,000 insurgents at Santa Clara province.

Small exchanges of shots with insurgent bands are occurring in some suburbs of Havana. There are many hundreds of insurgents a short distance from the city.

The occasional holding up of trains in various places is reported, the rural guards on them being disarmed, but the passengers have not been interfered with.

HUNDREDS PERISHED

CAUCASIAN TOWN OBLITERATED
BY COLLAPSE OF PORTION OF MOUNTAIN.

Tiflis, Transcaucasia, Sept. 11.— Practically without warning the side of a mountain rising above the township of Kwarell broke away and a sea of semi-liquid mud, sand and stones swept down on the township and overwhelmed and obliterated it. Some 255 persons have been buried alive.
In addition to the lives lost countless head of cattle perished and the crops are destroyed.

Kwarell township comprises an area of five kilometers in the district of Telaw, in the Caucasus. Similar disasters are of common occurrence in Caucasian valleys.

TWO MEN ROASTED ALIVE.

Seven Others Injured in a Wreck in Wisconsin.

Waupaca, Wis., Sept. 11.—Two men were roasted alive and seven others were seriously bruised and scalded in the upsetting of a locomotive and tender on the Wisconsin Central road three miles south of Waupaca Monday afternoon. The track was torn up for 100 feet and traffic on the line was held up almost ten hours.

Both engine and tender jumped the track and then ran in a zigzag line, tearing up the rails as it went. Suddenly the locomotive veered to one side and upset, and the men jumped.
Roadmaster Laymans and Conductor Pettigill and five other men who were riding on the running boards succeeded in getting free of the wreck, but were badly bruised and were scalded by the escaping steam.

Engineer Armstrong and Fireman McDonald were in the cab and when the big locomotive turned over they were pinned beneath the firebox.
Neither man was crushed, but they were unable to escape and both were literally roasted alive.

PASSENGER TRAIN WRECKED.

More Than a Score of Persons Injured Near Santa Barbara, Cal.

Santa Barbara, Cal., Sept. 11.—The second section of train No. 10, southbound on the Southern Pacific coast line from San Francisco, was wrecked at Sea Cliff, twenty miles south of Santa Barbara. Twenty-seven persons were injured, two of whom may die. Following is a list of the seriously injured.

Mrs. Mary F. Petron, Spokane,
Wash., may die; Mrs. Nellie F. Long, San Francisco; Julius Martin, Arkansas, may die.

The wreck occurred at point where the roadbed runs very near the sea on a slight embankment. Some part of the engine broke and dropped on the ties, causing the engine to leave the rails. The baggage car and four coaches followed, and all toppled over and slid down the embankment.

FIGHTING IS RESUMED

ARTILLERY RENEWS BOMBARD-MENT OF THE HOUSES OF JEWS AT SIEDLCE.

BY ORDER OF THE GOVERNOR

BECAUSE CITIZENS REFUSED TO GIVE UP MEMBERS OF JEW-ISH DEFENSE SOCIETY.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 11.—Advices from Siedlce are to the effect that the fighting and bombardment of houses, which ceased about midday on Monday, was resumed late in the afternoon, apparently in consequence of Governor Engelke's demand that the Jewish and Polish populace deliver up to him the members of the Jewish Self-defense association. The bundists, preferring death in the open to surrender, resumed the battle. Artillery was again brought into action but it is not known if the fighting still continues.

It is impossible to obtain full details of the events at Siedlce, as the authorities absolutely forbid communication and turn back all correspondents. At Rudgusowska, forty miles east of Warsaw, and which is the site of the great Zwardow mills, scenes similar to those enacted at Siedlce were witnessed. The soldiers are said to have killed forty persons.

Fugitives from Siedlce report that Governor Engelke issued an ultimatum declaring that he would bombard the whole town unless the terrorists surrendered.

In consequence of the pillage and destruction the citizens are suffering for food and water.

A telegram received here from Siedlce from a resident who succeeded in smuggling it through the censorship, says that pillaging commenced Saturday night. The soldiers broke into gin shops, became drunk, and then entered indiscriminately the apartments or houses of all classes, killing, pillaging and committing the most heinous crimes. The number of victims is unknown, but it is placed at 100. Most of the corpses are hidden in the ruins of houses.

REVOLT IN RUSSIAN PRISON.

Killing of a Woman by a Sentry the Cause of the Rebellion.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 11.—There was a revolt Monday in the Central detention prison of St. Petersburg in consequence of the death of Mlle. Semenova, a girl of twenty-two, a young and enthusiastic Social Democrat, who was shot and killed by a sentry when she showed herself at the window of her cell overlooking the courtyard. The furious prisoners expelled the wardens, baricaded the prison and laid the corpse of Mlle. Semenova upon an impromptu bier in the central cell, refusing to deliver it to the authorities and swearing they would die rather than surrender it. Troops were summoned, but the authorities, fearing bloodshed, temporized and sent for the brother of Mlle. Semenova, to whom the insurgents delivered the body.

Grand Duke Nicholas, after an investigation of the affair, ordered the dismissal of the officer of the guard, which was drawn from the unpopular Sminovsky regiment.

Mlle. Semenova was a medical student and was seeking to divide with the prisoners some sugar which she had surreptitiously obtained when she was shot.

TERRORISTS START TROUBLE.

Kill Restaurant Proprietor and Wound
Three Other Persons.

Warsaw, Sept. 11.—Four terrorists Monday evening entered a restaurant where a number of detectives had assembled, and shot and killed the proprietor. The assassins, in trying to escape, met a policeman and two soldiers, whom they shot and wounded.
The soldiers in a neighboring barrack, hearing the shots, rushed through the street beating and bayonetting all whom they encountered. Eleven persons were severely wounded.

In a collision Monday afternoon between civilians and a patrol in the Jewish quarter twenty of the former were wounded, six of them seriously.
There were several collisions between soldiers and revolutionists Monday night.

Two bombs were thrown at a patrol of rural guards in a neighboring village Monday, wounding eight of the guards.

Rich Booty for Robbers.

Kiev, Sept. 11.—At Bjelazerkov Monday a band of armed roughs attacked the local branch of the Discount bank in full view of many people and got off with $40,000. One bystander was killed and one of the robbers, fearing capture, committed suicide.

Work of Drunken Soldiers.

Lodz, Poland, Sept. 11.—Four soldiers who were on guard in Dreynow-ska street at night shot and killed two men and wounded three others and robbed a restaurant. The soldiers have been arrested.

RECENT PEASANTRY UPRISING.

Resulted in the Ruthless Ravaging and Burning of Estates.

Voronezh, South Russia, Sept. 11.— A correspondent of the Associated Press has just completed an investigation of the recent uprising of peasants in this province, which is situated in the heart of what is known as the "black belt" extending from the Don to the Volga. Both in the petty act of tyranny which provoked the ignorant, land mad peasantry, the savage wildness with which the monjiks ravaged and burned estates, the role played by the revolutionary agitators and the ruthless fashion in which the insurrection was finally suppressed and guilty and innocent alike made to suffer, it presents a typical picture to the American reader of what is almost daily chronicled in the cable dispatches as "agrarian disorders."

The uprising lasted twelve days, during which 142 estates were ravaged, the manor houses, stables and outbuildings plundered and burned, horses and grain put to the torch. In the single district of Bobrov ninety-three properties were destroyed and fired, the light of the flames illuminating the heavens for a distance of sixty miles. The nobles and other landed proprietors generally fled in terror to the cities, only a few making any attempt to protect their property.

The troops, mostly Cossacks and dragoons, were slow in arriving but when they did put in an appearance they shot and flogged the peasantry into submission and the village and city jails of the province are still filled with peasants "awaiting trial," although hundreds have already been deported to Siberia by "administrative order." The immediate cause of the uprising was the refusal of the governor, General Bobrikoff, to allow
M. Grushoff, a member of the дума, to render an account of his stewardship to his peasant constituents.

"ADMINISTRATION" TICKET.

Supported by Banker Colgate of New York City.

New York, Sept. 11.—James B. Colgate, head of the banking firm of James B. Colgate & Co. of this city, and a holder of a $1,500,000 policy in the Mutual Life Insurance company, made public a letter Monday supporting the "administration" ticket of the Mutual. The letter was addressed to about thirty of the largest policyholders of the company and calls for a meeting in this city on Wednesday to organize a Mutual Life Protective association, which shall have for its object the election of an "administration" ticket and to further support the administration of the company. With the exception of Rodman Wanamaker of Philadelphia, Mr. Colgate is the largest life insurance policyholder in the United States. In his letter Mr.
Colgate criticizes the methods of the International Policyholders' committee in its campaign against the New York Life and the Mutual Life Insurance companies.

WILLING TO ACCEPT STOCK.

Depositors of Real Estate Trust Company So Inform Receiver Earle.

Philadelphia, Sept. 11.—Encouraged by the prospects of an early reorganization of the wrecked Real Estate Trust company, many depositors Monday visited the offices of the company with assurances to Receiver Earle of their willingness to accept preferred stock in the rehabilitated concern.

That there will be no prosecution against the directors of the trust company was the authoritative statement which emanated Monday from District Attorney Bell's office. The announcement was made after special state bank examiners had made a partial report. Although the examiners are not through with their work enough has been learned to relieve the directors of criminal responsibility for the collapse of the institution.

Bryan Favors Arbitration.

Omaha, Sept. 11.—W. J. Bryan spoke Monday afternoon at Frug park under the auspices of the Central Labor union. Mr. Bryan in his speech took a strong position in favor of arbitration in labor troubles and in international disagreements. Mr. Bryan left at night for St. Louis.

Two Miners Killed.

Eveleth, Minn., Sept. 11.—As a result of a heavier blast than was expected in Adams' No. 4 milling pit Monday, John Meillich, an Austrian, and Tony Fonard, an Italian, were covered with ore and smothered to death, while Oscar Aho and Gus Lau-ma were injured.

STORE NEWS

As to Taffeta Silk

Ever since the opening of our store we have sold 19 inch taffeta silk in colors at 85c the yard, and as yet we have not had a single complaint as to its wearing qualities. This is an unusual record for taffeta silks. You will note however, that this silk is selling for 10c a yard more than the average 19 inch silk but you will readily agree THAT IT IS WORTH IT. Whenever you pay a price here you get the quality. Try our taffeta silk for silk satisfaction.

The new things in Plaid.

It must be admitted that our new plaid silks are the neatest that this season has produced. Plaids, you know, are very popular and especially so in silks.
If you want a handsome waist, just ask to see our selections for this fall's selling.

ELECTIONS IN MAINE

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR RE-ELECTED BY A SMALL PLURALITY.

LITTLEFIELD IS SUCCESSFUL

SAMUEL GOMPERS FAILS IN HIS EFFORTS TO DEFEAT THE CONGRESSMAN.

Portland, Me., Sept. 11.—Governor William T. Cobb, Rep., standing on a platform devoted almost exclusively to a continuance of the prohibitory law of the state, was re-elected Monday by a plurality of less than 8,000, with but few exceptions the smallest margin of votes ever given a Republican governor in the state of Maine.

Cyrus W. Davis of Waterville, the Democratic candidate for governor, polled one of the largest votes in the history of the party in this state. His issue in the campaign was the re-submission of the liquor question, which was incorporated in the state legislature four years ago.

More interesting, from a certain standpoint, was the re-election of Congressman Charles E. Littlefield, Rep., of the Second district, by a greatly reduced plurality. Congressman Littlefield's candidacy was the subject of bitter opposition on the part of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who asked for his defeat on the grounds that he voted against certain labor measures at the last session of congress.

The issue between Gompers and Littlefield was taken up by the Republican congressional committee and for three weeks the district has been the scene of a hard fight in which Secretary of War William H. Taft, Senator Lodge and Senator Beveridge and several congressmen were pitted against the head of the Federation of Labor.

Mr. Littlefield's plurality is estimated at about 1,000.

All the other Republican congressmen were re-elected.

The legislature will be Republican by a safe margin.

RIOT IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Strike Sympathizers Clash With Departing Strike-Breakers.

San Francisco, Sept. 11.—A disturbance that at times assumed the proportions of a riot marked the departure of 150 strike-breakers imported to break the strike of the United Railway Employees Monday evening.

Surrounded by armed guards and as many members of the police department as could be rushed to the scene, the men were marched half way across the city, pursued by a mob of strike sympathizers, who hurled bricks and abuse. Becoming frightened, the guards and strike-breakers lost their heads and began shooting.
The affair ended at the ferry building, where twenty of the armed guards were arrested. Reports from the hospitals of the city indicate that a dozen persons have been wounded, but none seriously. The mob was dispersed by the police after the strike-breakers had been hurried aboard a departing ferryboat.

FROM EATING DRIED BEEF.

Ten Persons Lying at the Point of Death at Kalamazoo, Mich.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Sept. 11.—Ten persons in three different families of this city have been lying at the point of death for over twelve hours suffering from the effects of eating dried beef delivered to their homes Saturday by a man who cannot be located.
A partial investigation has revealed that the meat came originally from one of the largest packinghouses.

The physicians are of the opinion that some sort of embalming fluid was used as a preservative in the beef and was the cause of the poisoning.

TWO IOWA MEN KILLED.

Passenger Train Hits a Buggy in Which They Were Riding.

Muscatine, Ia., Sept. 11.—A Rock Island passenger train Monday struck a buggy containing Lafayette Sylvester and Joseph Keck at Fair Point, killing both men instantly. Sylvester was killed in front of his home, his wife and children witnessing the accident.

THREE WORKMEN KILLED.

Seven Others Injured by the Collapse of a Garage.

New York, Sept. 11.—By the collapse Monday of a garage in course of construction at Mineola, L. I., three workmen were killed and seven were seriously injured. It is not known what caused the structure to fall to pieces.

Roosevelt and Higgins Confer.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 11.—Governor Higgins of New York conferred with President Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill Monday on New York state politics and candidates. Governor Higgins would only say that he and the president were in entire accord, and President Roosevelt declined to discuss the interview.

Investigation of Timber Frauds.

Boise, Ida., Sept. 11.—When the federal court convened here Monday the grand jury was impaneled and an investigation of Idaho timber land frauds began. More than fifty witnesses have been brought here to testify in relation to these land matters.

Boost for Cole and the development of Northern Minnesota.

Don't overlook the fact that a vote for C. B. Buckman at the primary election is a vote in the interest of your home town.

REPUBLICANS win the election in Maine, Gov. Cobb being re-elected by a plurality of 8,000, the smallest even given a successful candidate on his party ticket. Congressman Littlefield was also re-elected, by a reduced vote.

THE mayor of St. Cloud is in danger of impeachment proceedings, charges having been filed against him with the attorney general of the state for violating his oath of office in regard to saloon regulations. Punishment for the same is impeachment and heavy fine.

In another column of this issue will be found a news item indicating the corporate influences behind Mr. Lindbergh's candidacy for congress. For years the gentleman has been identified with practically every corporate interest in his home county and is a stockholder in nearly all the local corporations. He has been known as a corporation attorney and attention is called to this fact because of the earnest solicitude with which the opposition has endeavored to divert attention from themselves to Mr. Buckman by claiming that he was the friend of the monied interests.

CORPORATE INFLUENCE

H. P. Bell, the prominent New York financier, has taken personal charge of Mr. C. A. Lindbergh's congressional campaign headquarters at Little Falls.

Mr. Bell is one of the wealthy men of New York, and is prominent in financial circles. For years he has been interested with Mr. Lindbergh in loaning money on Morrison county realty, making farm mortgages a specialty. He is also interested with Mr. Lindbergh in the large cold storage and distributing plant erected recently at Little Falls. This enterprise involving an investment of $40,000 is designated to take the place of the retail merchant, by placing the consumer in communication with the manufacturer only once removed. Mr. Bell is prominently associated with numerous eastern corporations and is Mr. Lindbergh's partner in the proposed water power development in the Mississippi river above Pike Rapids for which the last session of congress declined to give a franchise.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Wadena Pioneer-Journal: Congressman C. B. Buckman is making a vigorous and square campaign for a renomination, and advices seem to be favorable to him. The four years he has served in congress have placed him in an influential position, and if elected he will be in a better position than ever to do his district good. No one finds any fault with Mr. Buckman's record in congress. He has been a hard working and faithful member, and deserves re-election.

From all over Cass county comes the report that Buckman will get more votes than ever. He is not only the most accommodating congressman we could possibly get but he can accomplish more than a congressman usually can. Not much danger that the sore-heads will have any effect on his vote.—Pine Tree Blade.

Osakis Review: The friendly relations between the two senators and Congressman Buckman is not at all surprising. Mr. Buckman is strong with the strong men of the district and state because he has made good, and while it is a high compliment to him to receive the hearty endorsement of such statesmen as Senators Nelson and Clapp, no one can dispute his claim to their good will if they will take the time to investigate his legislative record and the work he has accomplished for his district.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans T. Peterson returned from their wedding trip today and will go to housekeeping at once at 1123 East Oak street.

Mrs. M. M. Moore, of Pine River, was operated upon this morning by Drs. Thabes and Holman, for abdominal trouble and is doing nicely.

Several of the big engines which have been set up in the shops here have been turned out the past few days. They are certainly whoppers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Flicker left today for Milwaukee where Jerry is a delegate to the National convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen.

Erma Hathaway, the 12-year-old child of John Hathaway, died in this city yesterday of consumption and was taken to Crow Wing this afternoon for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Armstrong, and little son, who have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Howe, left today for their home in Philadelphia.

Mrs. H. I. Cohen left for Milwaukee today noon to attend the funeral of a favorite cousin who died yesterday morning in that city and will be buried tomorrow.

There was a surprise party and reception given Rev. A. Nelson, Friday evening in honor of his return as pastor of the Swedish Methodist church for a second year.

Mr. Victor I. Fraser, chief clerk of Oliver Iron Mining Co., at Stephens mine, Aurora, Minn., arrived in town Sunday and would be pleased to meet his friends at the "Ransford."

J. P. McGinnis is home from Hibbing. The iron water did not agree with him and together with the hot weather knocked him out in the first round. He expects to return to his work in a few days.

A. Mark is wearing an expansive smile and passing around cigars on a fine girl that arrived at his home last night. Mr. Marks has been married for 25 years and this is his first. No wonder he feels proud.

Geo. H. Spear, of Grand Rapids, county attorney of Itasca county, was renewing old time acquaintances in Brainerd yesterday afternoon. Mr. Spear studied law with Judge McClenahan, in this city.

Mrs. E. L. Steiger went to St. Cloud today with Miss Bessie Murphy, who will enter the state Normal at that place. Misses Regina Larson, Ruth Parker and Clara Erickson also went down to attend the Normal.

A. D. Shabaz, a native missionary of Persia, will give an English lecture in the Swedish Mission church, corner of Maple and 9th streets, tomorrow evening at 8 p. m. No admission. Come and hear of that ancient country.

NURSE'S STRIKING OFFER.

Ready to Care For Outcast Leper In West Virginia Mountains.

Charles Cosman, a nurse at the Montefiore Home For Chronic Invalids, in New York, was interviewed by a New York Herald reporter recently in connection with the present isolation of George Rossett, the Syrian leper, in the mountains of West Virginia. Cosman has had a great deal of experience in nursing, and he spoke in bitter terms about what he called the inhumanity of American civilization. He is a Hollander and speaks several languages with fluency. He said:

"What is this civilization that we speak of that allows a man to live like a snake in the brush? That allows him perhaps to die of madness from isolation? Has the government, having allowed this Syrian to enter the country four years ago, the right to permit this man to be segregated like a human viper because, through no fault of his own, he has contracted a contagious disease? Do you think it is just? Is this what has been accomplished by civilization when a human being is gaoled into the naked mountains to sleep in the grass like a toad?"

"There is another feature to the case also. What about the mountain streams at which this man drinks and washes? Does not this same stream supply the water for perhaps a settlement farther down the current? Maybe the man will take off a wornout shoe or a hat or any other garment and leave it by the roadside. Suppose, then, that some traveler in some manner comes in contact with this apparel. Suppose that the traveler even lies down and touches the spot where the leper has been, will he not carry the disease into the settlement? Do these civilized people think that by scourging the man into the wilderness they have rid themselves of the possibilities of contagion? Hardly."

"I am now willing to do this if I can find some one to guarantee all my expenses. I am tired of the existence of everyday routine and stand ready to go at any moment and care for the unfortunate man until the end. In order to do this I will myself be segregated from all the world. My friends will receive no word from me. I will simply live in the forest with this leper, taking care of him after the manner of a professional nurse, wearing rubber gloves, devoting my life to him until his death occurs. Then I will return to what you call civilization. All I ask is that my expenses during the time be guaranteed."

THEORY ON CANCER.

Dr. Nicholas Senn Holds the Disease Due to Civilization.

Dr. Nicholas Senn of Chicago has returned from an extended exploration in the heart of Africa and has brought back with him the results of discoveries which it is expected will throw light on the treatment of cancer, says a Chicago dispatch.

"After closely observing the condition of health in Africa and comparing the conditions found with those I had observed while on my polar expedition with Peary I am convinced that cancer is purely a disease of civilization," said Dr. Senn.

"There is absolutely no cancer among the natives, which are animals pure and simple. From that I am led to assume that if we in America had natural mothers and were allowed to be brought up simply and on the plainest food the spread of cancer among Americans would be quickly checked. My investigations showed me that cancer is not a parasitic disease, but is merely erratic tissue growth, and when we have found a method to ripen the undeveloped tissue, which is a cancer, the cure will be sure and absolute."

Dr. Senn spent three months in the heart of Africa. The conclusion of his travels and studies from an ethnological standpoint is that the African is nearly an unaltered hamitic race. He is purely animal and subject to none of the diseases of civilization except pneumonia. The pygmies, he believes, are genuine aborigines, who through centuries of oppression have lost their speaking tongue and express themselves in the "Click" language, which is understood by the monkeys among which they live.

The beauty bee is a money-maker. It "honeys" up one's thoughts; it sweetens one's life; it's nectar on one's words, and drops, sip by sip, into one's heart when Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is used. Tea or tablets, 35 cents. H. P. Dunn & Co.

Workers Wanted.

California wants 40,000 men for the rebuilding of San Francisco, for the building extensions in Los Angeles, for railway work and for a hundred other lines of pressing work in the state, says the New York Sun. Kansas wants 25,000 to 30,000 men to work in its harvest fields and manufacturing industries. The south wants men to work in its cotton mills, sugar mills, iron works, mines, fields, on roads and on railroad extensions.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

The N. Y. goods are coming as fast as wheels will bring them!

Here's the First Arrival

Do YOU want to see the most sensational—the greatest money saving sale that was ever launched in any town or city in the history of store keeping? Then take a stroll down Front Street tonight and look in the west window of the Cale Dept. Store and you will gaze with wonder on the great Bargains in Towels the one thing most needed in this hot weather.

This is the story: An Eastern manufacturer had towels and needed money. We had the money and wanted the towels. He offered us 100 dozen at a price—We bought them and bring them to our customers for 9c a towel. He had another 100 dozen lot—the price—we bought them and now put them on sale for for you at 13c a towel.

Come and look at the size—at the patterns and examine the quality.

You can have all you want of them next Thursday and Friday, Sept. 13 and 14 at 9c and 13c a towel—but none before this date.

L. J. CALE'S Dept. Store.

P. S.—This is the first sale of a series of weekly sales which we will hold from now on.

Louisiana Hunting Immigrants.

"Louisiana is the first state of the Union, so far as I know, that has ever appropriated money to send a commission to Europe for the purpose of encouraging immigration to that state," said Francis Dodge of Baton Rouge, La., to a correspondent of the Milwaukee Sentinel. "This was done by the last state legislature, and much good is expected of it. Charles Schuler, commissioner of agriculture and immigration, will make a tour of Europe and will show the advantages that Louisiana offers to the foreigners who desire to make a home in the new world. He will visit Ireland, Germany, Italy and Austria. Other southern and western states are expected to follow in the lead of Louisiana, and in a short time perhaps states will be offering special prizes to the foreigners who settle within their boundaries."

Well Worth Trying.

NATURALIZATION LAWS CHANGE

September 27th, 1906, Applicants Must be Able to Speak English

SIGN THEIR NAMES

Desiring Should Make Application Prior to that Time if Possible

Under the act of congress of June 29, 1906, the regulations regarding the naturalization of foreigners are much stricter. and after the 27th day of this month all declarations of intention to be signed by the applicant in his own hand writing and he must be able to speak the English language when making his declaration. The new law is more strict in many ways and requires all papers to be made in triplicate, one remaining in the office of the clerk issuing the same and one being sent to the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization at Washington. Under the new law notices must be posted of applications for naturalization and the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization must be notified of the date of final hearing. The clerk must also report to the bureau the name and reason or reasons for every refusal to grant naturalization or declaratory statements.

AUTUMNAL CATARRH.

Disease Prevalent Now. Hyomei Will Cure It Quickly.

A great many people suffer more with catarrh during the fall months than at any other season of the year, as changes in weather seem to have a bad effect upon the disease.

At the first warning of catarrh, one should begin the use of Hyomei. A few days' treatment will often prevent a serious attack of this distressing and annoying disease.

There is no stomach dosing with Hyomei. It cures catarrh by the natural method of breathing medication into the nose, throat and lungs, in this way killing the germs of catarrh, poisoning, healing and soothing the irritated mucous membrane and entering the blood with the oxygen, thus driving all catarrh germs from the system.

If you have any of the ordinary catarrh symptoms, such as offensive breath, burning pains in the throat, coughing, raising of mucus, difficulty to breathe, sneezing, huskiness, discharge from the nose, droppings in the throat, coughing spasms, etc., begin the use of Hyomei at once.

A complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00, extra bottles 50c, and H. P. Dunn & Co. give their personal guarantee with every package, that money will be refunded unless it cures.

To Whom It May Concern

Notice is hereby given that public notices Nos. 6 and 7 have been accepted by the engineers, and any person having a complaint to make on the construction of either of said ditches can present their case at a meeting of the county board Oct. 2, 1906.

TRIBUTE TO MR. MICHAEL

Ad Critic in Dry Goods Reporter Pays High Tribute to Ability of Brainerd Advertisement Writer

The Dry Goods Reporter carries a column entitled "Ad Criticisms" in which it discusses current advertisements in various parts of the country. The issue of September 8, 1906, it has a long notice of the work of Mr. Michael under the caption of "A Clever Series of Ads." It says, among other things, "I now come to one of the 'cleverest' bits of advertising I've seen for some time. I wonder why more merchants don't do such things. I've frequently said that it is a good plan to send a postal to your customers when you are in the city buying, but Mr. Michael, of H. P. Michael Co., Brainerd, beats that. * * * Mr. Michael was in Chicago buying goods. I have a series of ads that he used. They are all in the shape of type written letters, addressed either 'To Our Patrons' or 'To the Ladies' or 'To Our Customers, Present and Prospective.' * * * Occasionally there is a P. S. telling of something that he has been purchasing and shipped home, stating the price at which the goods would sell. The signature in each case is a reproduction of Mr. Michael's autograph. * * * The letters in every case were chatty, interesting, full of news that would appeal to the women."

The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chief study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed at H. H. Dunn & Co. drug store, Brainerd, Minn. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Fine Church Supper.

Tomorrow evening, Wednesday, Sept. 12, the ladies of the Congregational church will serve supper in the church parlors to which the public generally is invited. The following is the menu: Tomato salad, veal loaf, scalloped potatoes, beans, pickles, wheat bread, whole wheat bread, apple pie, cheese, cake and coffee. Ice cream extra.

"I have been somewhat costive, but Doan's Regulax gave just the results desired. They act mildly and regulate the bowels perfectly."—George B. Krause, 306 Walnut Ave., Altoona, Pa.

Can't Operate the Dam.

Judge Cant in district court yesterday issued an order restraining Bonness & Howe, lumbermen, from operating a dam on Prairie lake and Prairie river during the pendency of Andrew Korhonen's suit against them for alleged damage to his land through their operations.—Duluth News-Tribune.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Mrs. Rose Foster, widely known as an author, is dead at New Haven, Conn., aged sixty-six years.

The Wisconsin state fair opened at Milwaukee Monday. The attendance for the first day was about 25,000.

Herman Oelrichs, who died at sea on Sept. 1, left the bulk of his estate to his brother, Charles M. Oelrichs, and his sister, Mrs. Lucy Jay.

Ernest Moehle, twenty-one years old, was accidentally shot and killed by Eben McCullom while duck hunting on the river near Pigs Eye, Minn.

General James T. Smith, the new governor general of the Philippines, to succeed Governor Ide, arrived at Manila Monday on the transport Logan.

Joseph Phillips, aged eighty-one years, well known in fire insurance circles throughout the country and at one time mayor of Milwaukee, died Monday of general debility.

AMUSEMENTS

Dora Thorne.

At a recent meeting of the American Manager's Association a brisk conference was held regarding the relative merits and qualifications which go to make a play an assured and lasting success. From all sides could be heard the theme of heart interest, and the most casual patron of the drama will surely agree to this. Heart interest we must have, something that goes straight home to the heart and proves its truth there. "Dora Thorne" was cited as an instance of this particular quality. "Dora Thorne" certainly does contain this self-same heart interest with all its variations, humor and pathos are combined with delightful originality. Competent critics who have seen it, pronounce it the best dramatized novel of the past few years. It will be presented with the original cast and scenery, and will no doubt duplicate its success in other cities here. Opera house tomorrow night. Seats now on sale. Prices 75, 50 and 25 cents.

A treat of no small importance is promised our theatre goers of the better class, in the announced presentation of Wagner's magnificent spectacle of "Parsifal" which comes to the opera house Saturday, Sept. 15th. The requirements of such a production, being of so high a standard, as judged from an artistic and ethical point of view, are of so varied and exacting a nature as to require the most careful consideration on the part of all concerned in its promotion and interpretation. The classic and delicate draperies used in ornamentation and costuming, the antique style of furniture and appointments, and the peculiar form of ancient architecture necessary, all have to be studied closely and correctly reproduced or the exquisite harmony of the entire spectacle is sadly marred.

Starving to Death.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair, St. Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters, with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Best health tonic on earth. Price 50c. Guaranteed by H. P. Dunn & Co., drug store, Brainerd, Minn.

On the Road to Mandalay.

[Shipping up to date.]
[A motorist has arrived at Mandalay, Burma, having covered 4,914 miles in India and Burma in an automobile. He reports the roads very muddy and rough, except in the cities.—Daily Paper.]
In an old Mouleim pagoda, lookin' eastward to the sea,
There's a Burma girl a-settin'; she's a-waitin' there for me,
She's forgotten Tommy Atkins an' 'is thin red 'ero line,
For she's dippy now on motors, an' sweet Supaiwat's mine.

On the road to Mandalay,
Where the bike cops don't get gay,
Where there ain't no speedin' limit—
You can't speed in Mandalay.

Oh, her petticoat's still yellin', but it's spattered now with mud.
Every rickshaw coolie shudders, an' he swears by Great Gawd Budd
That the juggernaut's a plaything when compared with Suppy's car, Suppy's "Mandalay Man Eater," with its nickleed steering bar.

When the mist is on the rice fields an' the sun is droopin' slow
She don't take her little banjo; she just climbs in the tonneau.
From in front I catch the flavor of her whackin' white cheroot,
But there ain't no time for kissin'—you should see us shoot the chute!

What's the use o' wastin' tires on a gritty asphalt street?
Why not mosey to where the Irrawadi ripples in the heat;
Where there ain't no Ten Commandments an' there ain't but one garage?
So don't break down north of Rangun in your benzine equipage.

Oh, the Eandar Log is shrieking in his clash-transmission style,
An' the temple bells is ringin', crost the river, 'bout a mile.
An' I feels for Tommy Atkins in 'is little barrack hall While we're tootin' the Man Eater, Suppy's motor, down the mall.

An' when that's all shoved behind me, far away an' long ago,
An' no town's car can struggle through the Irrawadi's douch, Wrap me with my chauffeur's goggles in a Brahman overcoat
And let Suppy softly gurgle as she hustles out to mote.

On the road to Mandalay,
Where the bike cops don't get gay,
Where there ain't no speedin' limit—
You can't speed in Mandalay.

ROYAL Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Healthful cream of tartar, derived solely from grapes, refined to absolute purity, is the active principle of every pound of Royal Baking Powder.

Hence it is that Royal Baking Powder renders the food remarkable both for its fine flavor and healthfulness.

No alum, no phosphate—which are the principal elements of the so-called cheap baking powders and which are derived from bones, rock and sulphuric acid.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

WINS THE ROOSEVELT CUP.

American Yacht Vim Victorious in International Race.

Marblehead, Mass., Sept. 11.—The Roosevelt cup, presented by the Eastern Yacht club to inaugurate yachting contests between Germany and America, was won Monday by the American yacht Vim, owned by Commodore T. L. Park of the American Yacht club, New York.

By taking Monday's race the Vim scored her third victory, which gave to her owner the cup, as well as the honor of showing that his yacht was the best all-round craft of the six that started to race in the series begun a week ago.

Of the five races sailed the Vim won the second, third and fifth, while the Auk captured the first race and the Wannsee the fourth.

The designer of the Vim was William Gardner, and Clifford Buckman was in command.

At no time after the first mark had been passed Monday was the Vim in danger of being beaten. She finished more than four minutes ahead of the Auk, the second boat. The German yacht Wannsee finished third, over eleven minutes behind the Vim.

A Church For Children.

The Rev. Harry A. King, pastor of the Oakley Methodist Episcopal church of Kansas City, Mo., intends to start a church for children, with children on the official board, a child organist, child officers, deacons, ushers and congregation, says a Kansas City dispatch. He intends to have the children's church organized on the forms and discipline laid down by the general conference for the churches formed by adults. He hopes to have the new church ready to be opened this fall. Services would be held weekly. He believes the project will greatly attract the children of the neighborhood.

COLE GIVES VIEWS ABOUT STATE LANDS

Republican Candidate for Governor

Favors the Passage of Broad Constitutional Amendment Regarding Taxation.

Hon. A. L. Cole in a recent address discussed the question of taxation and made a plain statement of his views on that subject. He said:

"On the tax question I have decided views. The state has developed to a point where the expenditures for governmental purposes have reached an enormous figure. In 1913 more than $22,000,000 was taken by direct taxation from the earnings of our people and spent to run the various departments of our state and municipal administration. When we realize that this sum does not include special local improvement assessments, licenses of all kinds, nor the gross earnings tax of railroads, insurance companies, telegraph and telephone companies and the like, nor the state's income from its own investments, we must be convinced that this is one of the very important subjects which is now before our citizens for consideration.

"A large part of our public expenditures is for objects as to which it is the state's policy to exercise liberality. More than 40 per cent of the total spent goes in one shape or another for the cause of popular education. Our people believe in good schools and approve of their maintenance and improvement. I think in other directions there is room for economy, and I pledge myself, if elected, to investigate thoroughly every avenue of possible waste and extravagance, and to use my influence to reduce and limit outlays wherever this can be done without prejudice to efficient service. But the burden will be heavy, notwithstanding all that can be done in this way, unless we improve our methods of taxation.

"We have now in operation a system which came into existence when business conditions were much different from what they are at present. New forms of wealth have been created and accumulations are held in such shapes which were then unknown, and which our laws contain no provision for reaching. The result is that property of one sort is overtaxed, and property of another sort escapes entirely. For these reasons I am in favor of the proposed tax amendment to the state constitution, which is to be voted on at the coming election. If adopted, it will enlarge the powers of the legislature very materially and make it possible to enact a revenue law in harmony with scientific thought on the subject, and which will more equitably meet the social and economic conditions existing at the present day. If we got no further the first year after its adoption than to rid ourselves of direct taxes for state purposes, leaving this source free for the use of our subordinate political subdivisions, we should have made substantial progress over what we are able to do under our present constitutional provisions."

WHAT COLE'S OPPONENTS SAY.

The St. Paul Daily News, Governor Johnson's St. Paul organ, approves without qualification the reforms urged by A. L. Cole in his Kenyon speech. The article is as follows: "Mr. Cole's keynote, struck at Kenyon, chimes pleasantly—no dissensions there nor note of quarrel. "He favors enforcement of law, reduction of railroad rates, correction of insurance abuses, equalization of taxes, economy in expenditures, development of the state, reclamation of waste lands.

"There is not a line in the carefully prepared address to provoke dispute, not an utterance to excite opposition. Every citizen in Minnesota may solemnly cross his heart and soberly subscribe to all that was said.

"Mr. Cole makes no pretense to eloquence and his plain sentences have not disturbed the state's administrative tranquility. His supporters will pronounce it pleasing and wholly satisfactory. For that matter, so will his opponents.

"The Daily News is pleased to commend it cheerfully, giving full faith and credit to the good intentions there expressed. Nowise startling, it is a simple and straightforward statement of purposes in which every citizen may cordially concur.

"If every one voted for him who finds in this keynote speech nothing with which to disagree Mr. Cole would be elected unanimously. Contrariwise, if we must elect governor every one who takes the position that is outlined we must elect about 400,000 men governor of Minnesota next November.

"There is nothing in the address—one unconsciously uses negatives in speaking of it—to shake the state with oncoming thunders, nor yet, if Mr. Cole should be elected, to cause the state dismay.

"There is nothing to detract from the esteem in which he has been held deservedly, not an argument to win to him any who demand that he show cause why he should be elected."

To the average reader it must appear that if Mr. Cole's platform is such as every one approves and that if every one votes for him who endorses his attitude he will have a majority of 400,000 next November if he is scarcely while looking further for a candidate who will reflect the views of the people of Minnesota. That surely is reason enough why the people should vote for him.

DRAIN THE STATE SWAMP LANDS

HON. ALBERT L. COLE GIVES HIS REASONS FOR THINKING SUCH WORK WOULD BENEFIT THE ENTIRE STATE.

Hon. Albert L. Cole in his speech opening the campaign discussed the question of the drainage of the state's swamp lands, and incidentally described briefly the law drafted by him which provides for a preliminary topographical survey. The best of his remarks on this subject are as follows:

"During the session of 1905 a law was enacted by the legislature, providing for a comprehensive system of drainage of such parts of the state's swamp lands as, in the opinion of the state drainage commission, is advisable. This system involves a topographical survey. In November next, the engineer in charge of the survey is to deliver to the drainage commission, to be filed with the state auditor, a map of the swamp and marshy lands he has surveyed, which will show not only the location, length, size and approximate cost of each ditch suggested, but it will also show each forty-acre tract of land to be benefited by each drain. Any one carefully examining that map and the reports which will accompany it, which are to be printed for the information of the legislature and the people, can distinguish not only the lands owned by the state that will be benefited, but he can tell what lands to be drained are owned by private individuals or corporations. Every essential fact with regard to each drainage ditch will be in possession of the legislature, and they will be in a position to act intelligently on any drainage project they decide to undertake. Thus the legislature will be able to so apportion the cost of drainage, that the burden will fall on each forty-acre tract in proportion to the benefits received. For myself, I will say that I am not in favor of paying a single dollar of public money for drainage of lands owned by private individuals or corporations. State drainage as advocated by me does not mean the drainage of a single piece of property owned by individuals or under any other ownership except the state, and only such lands belonging to the state as, in the opinion of experts, will be valuable enough after such drainage, to more than repay the money expended upon them.

The state owns nearly 2,000,000 acres of land that is entirely worthless until it is drained. There is at least 1,000,000 acres of this land, when reclaimed by ditching, will be as good as the average swamp land that the state has already sold, approximating 50,000 acres, and sold at the average price of $6.43 per acre. Even if the market value of this class of land does not increase in value as time advances, which is altogether improbable, that 1,000,000 acres, when drained, will sell for $6,430,000. The estimated cost of draining these lands is $1,000,000. This sum, however, comes out of the current funds, and the whole of the $6,430,000, when the land is sold, will go into the school and other trust funds of the state. This money, when placed at interest at 4 per cent, will yield a net income of $257,200, which will annually be pouring into the state treasury as interest from the sale of these lands alone. This income is not for one year only, but it is to last for all time. More than one-half of this annual income goes into our school fund, to be paid out annually to support the common schools of the state, is not the drainage of this land a good business proposition?—one which commands itself to all thinking men?

PETTY CHARGES.

Immediately after the Republican state convention in Duluth it was announced that A. L. Cole, the Republican nominee for governor, was an old scold. But his memory has faded so badly since the close of the war that Mr. Cole cannot now remember of what regiment he was a member. It would be dangerous to put a man with such a treacherous memory in the governor's chair.—Fairbault Edit.

The immortal Shakespeare said, "In the great game of life, the gentlest game is soonest winner." The same saying might be applied to the political game, but it seems impossible to apply it to that game, each party striving to beguile the candidates of the opposition in which neither party as a rule can claim any exemption, but of all the petty, malicious charges that ever came to the notice of the editor of this paper the charge that Mr. Cole claimed to be a veteran of the Civil war is the lowest, and if the opposition party can find nothing else against him the leaders who are working in the interest of Mr. Johnson would do well to put a stop to the low business. "Fair play is a jewel" and the party which forgets to be fair, while it may win for a while, is sure to be discredited in time.—Brainerd Arena.

Karlshad Advocate: During A. L. Cole's successful business career he always gave his patrons a "square deal." That is just what the people of Minnesota will receive after he is inaugurated governor.

Karlshad Advocate: As the campaign lengthens, Cole strengthens.

Are You Tired, Nervous and Sleepless?

Nervousness and sleeplessness are usually due to the fact that the nerves are not fed on properly nourishing blood; they are starved nerves. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes pure, rich blood, and thereby the nerves are properly nourished and all the organs of the body are run as smoothly as machinery which runs in oil. In this way you feel clean, strong and strenuous—you are toned up and invigorated, and you are good for a whole lot of physical or mental work. Best of all, the strength and increase in vitality and health are lasting. The trouble with most tonics and medicines which have a large, booming sale for a short time, is that they are largely composed of alcohol holding the drugs in solution. This alcohol shrinks up the red blood corpuscles, and in the long run greatly injures the system. One may feel exhilarated and better for the time being, yet in the end weakened and with vitality decreased. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains no alcohol. Every bottle of it bears upon its wrapper The Badge of Honesty, in a full list of all its several ingredients. For the druggist to offer you something he claims is "just as good" is to insult your intelligence.

Every ingredient entering into the world-famed "Golden Medical Discovery" has the unanimous approval and endorsement of the leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice. No other medicine sold through druggists for like purposes has any such endorsement. The "Golden Medical Discovery" not only produces all the good effects to be obtained from the use of Golden Seal root, in all stomach, liver and bowel troubles, as in dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, ulceration of stomach and bowels and kindred ailments, but the Golden Seal root used in its compounding is greatly enhanced in its curative action by other ingredients such as Stone Root, Black Cherrybark, Hoodroot, Mandrake root and chemically pure triple-refined glycerine.

FATAL DUEL IN A SALOON.

One Participant Killed and the Other Fatally Wounded.

Norfolk, Neb., Sept. 11.—Lee Bailey and Charles Dugan, between whom a feud is said to have existed for some time, met in a saloon Monday night and engaged in a pistol duel. Five shots were fired. Bailey was instantly killed and Dugan cannot survive. The bartender and two others were hit by stray bullets, but not seriously hurt.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

KILLED BY PULAJANES.

Constabulary Lieutenant Treadwell Slain Near Baracuen.

Manila, Sept. 11.—Lieutenant R. E. Treadwell of the Philippine scouts was killed Monday night by Pulajanes six miles south of Baracuen. He was in command of a small detachment of scouts whose bivouac was attacked during the night by a band of about 100 Pulajanes. Lieutenant Treadwell was the only man hit. Troops are in pursuit of the band.

Sixty troops and forty constabulary struck a band of Pulajanes near Sile Marchos, killed one and wounded several of them. The rest of the band escaped. The troops sustained no casualties and destroyed a large quantity of supplies gathered by the Pulajanes.
